

How to Reach VIT Chennai Campus

Location

VIT University Chennai Campus is located midway between Vandalur Zoo and Kelambakkam in South Chennai in the State of Tamil Nadu. It is 30 km away from Chennai International Airport and 42 km away from Chennai Central Junction. It is easily accessible by Metro Train and Deluxe Buses from both Chennai Airport and Central Railway Junction. The nearest Metro Station is Vandalur Zoo, which is 9 Km from the campus. The campus can be reached by MTC Bus Route No. 555 from Tambaram bound for Tiruporur. From Vandalur Zoo, Van services are also available.

Reaching from Chennai Airport:

You can reach the campus within 30 minutes by taxi. From Airport one has to drive via Pallavaram, Chromepet, Tambaram, and Vandalur Zoo on the National Highway - NH45. From Vandalur Zoo one has to take a left turn on the road adjacent to Zoo leading to Kelambakkam. In less than 9 Kms, you will find the Campus located next to Krisp IT Park.

By Train:

If you arrive at Chennai Central, you can move to Park Town Station (Opposite to Central Station). From there you can reach Vandalur Zoo by Metro Trains bound for Chengalpattu. During peak hours you will find trains bound for Tambaram every 5 minutes. You can get down at Tambaram Junction and reach the campus by bus.

By Bus:

Vandalur Zoological Park is well connected by Deluxe and Luxury buses plying from major locations of Chennai. From Vandalur Zoo, one can reach either by auto or van.
